

Bio for the 2012 International Energy Planning Conference

Terry Detrick is a 3rd generation Farmer/Rancher. His farming and ranching operation is headquartered at Ames, Oklahoma, 30 miles southwest of Enid in Northwest Oklahoma.

He and his son, Brad, currently partner in a 2800 acre small grains, feed grains, cow/calf and stocker operation.

Terry's current and past involvement consists of:

11 years service in Public Education as a classroom teacher and then as an Administrator; President of the Farmers Elevator Company of Ames; State President of the Oklahoma Wheat Growers Assn; National President of the National Assn of Wheat Growers; President of Oklahoma Sustainable Energy, LLC; Vice President of Plains Oilseed Products Cooperative; Member, Agriculture Advisory Roundtable for the Kansas City Branch of the Omaha District of the Federal Reserve and holds a Federal USDA Nomination to the Cattlemen's Beef Board.

Detrick currently is President of the 180,000 member strong Oklahoma Farmers Union Farm Organization and its American Farmers and Ranchers Mutual Insurance Company subsidiary.